Dear Ms. Shiratori, Mr. Benedek, Ms. Laxer, and Mr. Mattout,

I am writing to inform you that, due to 7 For All Mankind's refusal to resolve my $268 order #1050840 — including shipping it after my cancellation request — I have now filed formal complaints and initiated external outreach.

Actions Taken:

- FTC Complaint — citing unfair/deceptive practices (denying cancellation, shipping anyway, restrictive returns).
- BBB Complaint — documenting the timeline, cancellation proof, and lack of response.
- Louisiana Attorney General Consumer Protection Complaint — emphasizing the bad faith shipment after cancellation and 40+ ignored escalations.
- Press Outreach — shared a press statement and competitor comparison with Vogue Business, WWD, Consumer Reports, and Truth in Advertising (TINA).
- Public Visibility — posts drafted/published on X and Instagram highlighting this case and tagging 7 For All Mankind and Delta Galil.

At this point, the reputational and regulatory costs already exceed the $248 in question. The company's decision to ship after my cancellation request — despite your stated 2–4 day processing window — remains indefensible.

The only way to mitigate this is through an immediate resolution:

1. Full refund, and
2. A goodwill resolution (either allowing me to keep the product or issuing meaningful credit).

Otherwise, the complaints and press coverage will proceed forward without any further input from me.

Sincerely,
Charles William Kinslow, IV
