I just called Affirm Customer Service to try to make payments on two separate loans unrelated to the fraudulent loan XQ8M-YX19, which as of today still shows that I owe $78.47.

I spoke to two representatives, with the second advising me that the addresses I provided were insufficient to pull up records needed to facilitate a payment by phone. She then transferred me to a third department that 'could handle it,' and after 60 seconds of background chatter, the call terminated on their end.

This is an ongoing issue with Affirm, its managing counsel, its retained counsel, the feckless CFPB and, finally, CA DOJ Rob Bonta.

I've been told that I can only make payment through the app or by phone, which is clearly still impossible. My only option is to use Bill Pay through my bank, but since I don't have the loan ID's, I can't even use that alternative method anymore.

Please, someone help me resolve this.

Thanks, Chase Kinslow
