Dear Charles,

I hope this message finds you safe and well.

Your case was escalated internally and brought to my attention. My name is Jose B. and I'm a member of the Customer Excellence Management Team here at FARFETCH. I've been asked to personally review your case as your email was received by several members of our Executive Management Board.

Thank you for taking the time to contact us and for explaining the situation in detail. I sincerely apologise for the inconvenience caused and regret to learn that you selected the incorrect size of the Bally Clay Driver loafers during your purchase. I completely understand your frustration, especially as you attempted to correct the issue within a very short timeframe.

Unfortunately, some of our stock points do not allow cancellations once an order has been placed and our Customer Service team operates within specific working hours. Because of this, your request could not be actioned before the order was fulfilled and shipped.

That said, our specialised team has already contacted DHL to stop the delivery and have the parcel returned to our stock point. Once DHL confirms that the package is being reversed back to our partner, we will process your full refund as quickly as possible.

In the meantime, as FARFETCH is a marketplace, we are unable to offer exchanges. I would recommend placing a new order for the correct size.

Although the Black Friday Extra 20% Off campaign has ended, I will be happy to provide you with a promotional code, subject to the same terms & conditions, so you may still enjoy the same discount on your replacement purchase:

BF25AC-NXS6EK

Expiry date: 01/01/26, 5pm

Your feedback is truly appreciated and will be shared internally to help us continue improving our services.

Rest assured, I will continue to monitor your case closely. Once I have an update on your refund, I will inform you.

In the meantime, if you need further support, I remain at your disposal.

Kind regards,
Jose B.

Dear Charles,

Thank you for your patience while I actively worked on your case.

I'm pleased to confirm that DHL has now reversed the shipment of your BALLY Clay Driver loafers from order RCWJ3S and the package will not be delivered to you. You may follow the shipment reversal here: DHL 7731338226.

I've just submitted an urgent request to our Finance team to process your full refund as soon as possible. Once completed, you'll receive a confirmation email. Please note that refunds may take up to 10 business days to be reflected on your statements, depending on your payment provider.

I'm truly sorry for the overall experience you've had. This does not reflect the standard of service FARFETCH aims to uphold and we hope to restore any lost faith in our services.

As a reminder, you can still take advantage of our Black Friday Extra 20% Off campaign using the code I shared in my previous email (valid on selected sale items and subject to the terms and conditions of the promotion).

I sincerely appreciate your patience and understanding throughout this process.

Should you need any further support in the future, I remain at your disposal.

Happy holidays!

Warm regards,
Jose B.

Here is the thing, Jose: I'm unemployed, I was fired the day after I made that purchase and was nearly homeless. That is obviously not your fault, I lost my job because the company was struggling and I was the newest hire. But still, it put me in a very serious predicament. A predicament caused by policies that don't comply with regulations in my country, that result in regulatory orders costing companies a not insubstantial amount of fines, they damage credibility, anger consumers, etc. And your solution is a 20% off code? How can that possibly be a proportionate response under these circumstances? I will proceed to file complaints, publicize my encounter with outlets that have considerable messaging reach, because if I don't, companies like yours will continue doing the same shit and using the same excuses. That is, until the cost of continuing to engage in the same conduct starts having material effects on the line items in the Profit and Loss statements that your higher-ups obsess about and you start losing market share to Net-a-Porter, Mytheresa, SSENSE, and Matchesfashion

Dear Charles,

Thank you for taking the time to answer my call today.

Although our conversation was brief, I appreciated the opportunity to reach out as I wanted to ensure that any remaining concerns could be addressed.

I acknowledge that your initial experience with FARFETCH did not meet your expectations. While you mentioned that there was no animosity, I would still like to formally reiterate that, as an apology gesture for the frustration caused, we have credited your FARFETCH account with 300 USD. This credit may be applied towards a future purchase, it is valid for one year and will be automatically redeemed during checkout.

As per your request, I have carefully reviewed both the item currently in your shopping bag and the 20% Black Friday promotional code previously issued. The Golden Goose Ball Star sneakers you selected are a full-price item and were not included in our Black Friday campaign. Consequently, the promotional code is not applicable, as the offer was strictly limited to selected sale items.

For your reference, please find below the main terms and conditions of the 20% off Black Friday campaign:

- The extra 20% discount was valid on sale items only
- Discount will not be applied to exempt items
- Some of our Partners may choose not to participate in this promotion
- The offer cannot be used in conjunction with any other FARFETCH discount or promotional code offer
- Offer Threshold: Basket must meet the minimum amount listed per currency, based on original, pre-promotion prices of qualifying items only — USD $145 / EUR €125 / GBP £100 / CNY ¥1,000 / HKD $1,200 / NTD $5,000 / RUB 10,000 / DKK kr.900 / BRL R$800 / CAD $185 / AUD $190 / JPY ¥16,000 / KRW ₩170,000 / CHF 140 / SGD $195 / MXN 2,500 / PLN 480 / SEK 1,100kr / AED 550 / QAR 550 / SAR 550 / COP 650,000 / CLP 150,000
- FARFETCH reserves the right to withdraw or amend this promotion at any time

Please note that our Black Friday campaign was active from 17 November 2025 at 08:00 GMT until 02 December 2025 at 09:00 GMT and only items with the '-20%' label were included in this promotion.

As you were unable to benefit from the 20% discount on your Bally Clay Driver loafers during this period, we issued a replacement code under the same terms so that you could reorder the item should you wish to do so.

Regrettably, the discount cannot be applied to the Golden Goose sneakers in your shopping bag and FARFETCH must comply with the conditions of the promotion, contractually agreed with certain partners and brands.

I sincerely appreciate your understanding in this matter.

Should you require any further clarification or assistance, please let me know. I will be available to help you.

Kind regards,

Jose B.

Jose,

Don't insult my intelligence. The Golden Goose sneakers are in my cart because I was testing whether your code works at all. It doesn't.

I've tested it on multiple items with your "-20%" sale label and the code fails every time. You're hiding behind terms and conditions instead of admitting you issued a non-functional code.

Fix it by end of business today or your emails become exhibits in the story that ends your career Thursday.

Stop wasting my time.

Chase

Dear Mr. Kinslow,

My name is Patrícia Loureiro, Global Senior Director for Customer Service at FARFETCH. I have been personally reviewing your case and have taken over the communication from our advisors.

First, I would like to acknowledge that we fell short in part of your experience with us, and for that I sincerely apologise.

To address this, we have already provided USD 300 in credit — which exceeds the value of the item you were seeking (Bally suede loafers), allowing you to obtain it at no cost as a gesture of goodwill — as well as a 20% promotional code that replicates the Black Friday promotion terms and conditions. I understand that the conditions of this code may not fully meet your expectations, and we are therefore providing an additional 15% promotional code with fewer restrictions:

15% Promo Code (valid on Sale and Full Price items): 15-4SL5BG

Terms and Conditions:

- Valid until January 15, 2026
- Cannot be used in conjunction with other codes or auto-applied campaigns
- Eligible for selected brands, products, and FARFETCH partners
- FARFETCH reserves the right to withdraw or amend this promotion at any time

At this stage, we believe we have taken reasonable and fair steps to resolve the matter.

I would also like to kindly remind you that while we absolutely welcome feedback, all communication with the service team must remain respectful.

Please let me know if there is anything else I can clarify for you.

Kind regards,
Patrícia Loureiro

Why does the 20% code not work anymore?

Dear Mr. Kinslow,
the 20% promocode is active (we have checked) and working but applies only to the items that were on sale during the Black Friday promotion, since we issued it so that you could buy the Bally suede shoes in the right size, because we were unable to perform the exchange when requested.

Now we are on a new 20% off promotion on a lot of items on the platform and this promocode is not stackable. For this reason, and to make it easier for you, we have issued credit and a new 15% promocode with less restrictions.

If you want us to check why the 20% promocode is not applied at checkout, you need to send us the link to the item you're trying to buy.

Kind regards,

Patricia

Also, a final note. Clarify succinctly why I should not excoriate your business practices for the violations outlined previously.

"The Coupang-Farfetch transaction provides a case study on how distressed cross-border acquisitions operate from a legal perspective. It demonstrates that when a target is near insolvency, typical shareholder-centric governance assumptions no longer fully apply. Instead, creditor protection, acquirer senior financing, and rapid execution become the dominant factors. The key lesson is that structure matters: how a deal is framed (asset purchase vs. share purchase or rescue financing vs. normal takeover) can dramatically alter who has rights, who controls the outcome, and how much transparency is owed. Perhaps securities regulators should consider expanded disclosure for cross-border rescue transactions. As global M&A continues to accelerate and distressed targets increasingly become the focus, it may be time to ask whether our current governance frameworks sufficiently protect shareholders and ensure fair process in high-stakes deals."

What a mess! Do you still record customer calls without their consent or was the $4 million a sufficient deterrent? Here is a summary document for you to peruse and perhaps reflect on why someone might use profane language when dealing with a deceptive, manipulative, dishonest, and, in a general business sense, failing enterprise. And please bring up defamation.
