Attorney General Murrill,

I am writing to formally bring to your attention a serious matter involving out-of-state fintech lender Affirm, Inc. (San Francisco, CA) violating the Louisiana Unfair Trade Practices Act (LUTPA / La. R.S. 51:1401 et seq.) against a Monroe, Louisiana resident (Ouachita Parish).

I am an attorney (licensed in Arkansas) and CPA (Arkansas & Louisiana) residing in Monroe. Below is a summary of the violations:

1. Unauthorized Shipping Anomaly & Law Enforcement Report: On July 7, 2026, an unauthorized $104.63 loan (#XQ8M-YX19) was fraudulently generated on my account for merchandise shipped to San Jose, CA (1,800 miles from Monroe, LA). I immediately notified Affirm and filed Monroe Police Department Incident Report #26-29572. On July 16, Affirm Order Review confirmed in writing that I am NOT responsible for this loan.
2. Arbitrary UI Account Lockdown: Immediately following liability clearance, Affirm locked my user interface, blocking in-app payment access for performing loans while positioning my account for auto-generated delinquency/late fees.
3. False Disclosures to Federal Regulators: In its July 31 written response to CFPB Complaint #260717-35668593, Affirm falsely reported to federal regulators that I initiated a $26.16 down payment and filed a bank chargeback. In reality, I never authorized a down payment, hold no personal bank card ending in *3151, and never filed a bank dispute.

Affirm fabricated a story of consumer chargeback fraud to explain away an unpaid balance on a loan its own risk team cleared as fraudulent in writing.

I have submitted a formal dispute through your office's online portal and attached the primary evidence documents for your office's review.

Respectfully submitted,

Charles W. Kinslow IV, J.D., C.P.A.

Dispute Details:

What would satisfy your dispute?

PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING CAREFULLY.

By submitting this form, you are signifying that you have read, and that you understand and agree to the following statements and conditions:

Meet Liz

Depending on the nature of my dispute, the Attorney General's Office may forward a copy of this form in its entirety, including any documents I provide to the company complained about, and ask for a response, or may refer the dispute to another agency.

The Attorney General's Office may keep a record of this form and any documents I provide and may provide copies of them to other private and public agencies. I authorize the Attorney General's Office to give copies of the form and any documents I provide and any information in them to anyone deemed necessary by the Attorney General's Office.

If I have a complaint about criminal conduct, such as fraud, the Attorney General's Office recommends that I contact local law enforcement agencies, which have jurisdiction over criminal activity. Additionally, if I have a complaint about fraud, waste, or abuse stemming from a disaster, the Attorney General's Office recommends that I contact the National Center for Disaster Fraud (NCDF) at 1-866-720-5721.

The information that I provide may be used to help the Attorney General's Office detect patterns of unfair and deceptive trade practices, which may lead to investigations on behalf of the public to eliminate such practices. However, the Attorney General's Office cannot act as my lawyer, a court of law, or legal advisor. The Attorney General's Office is not my personal legal representative and does not conduct litigation on behalf of individuals in matters involving private controversies. The Attorney General's Office recommends that I consult a private attorney. I may lose my right to sue about this matter entirely if I wait too long to do so. Any action by the Attorney General's Office may not result in a refund or other relief for me personally. I am, however, filing this dispute to notify the Attorney General's Office of the activities of the named party and to seek any assistance the Attorney General's Office may be able to render.

The information given is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

I understand and agree to all above statements and conditions.
